

A Lifetime of Collecting

Thu, 14th Jun 2018

Viewing:

Wednesday 13th June 10am-5pm

Thursday 14th June 9am-11am

Lot 133

Estimate: £1000 - £1500 + Fees

An 18th century lignum vitae wassail bowl, of ring turned cylindrical form, on a fluted column to further carved circular footrim, having later silver mount inscribed 'James Gascoigne Lynde born 25th January 1816', with further white metal shield shaped initialled cartouche, the silver band with makers mark for Elizabeth Eaton of London 1880, h.25cm, dia. 20cm.

James Gascoigne Lynde (1816-1883) served his apprenticeship at Chelsea Waterworks Co, and later worked on several engineering projects including the burgeoning railway system, viaducts and bridges. He was a member of the Institute of Civil Engineers and was appointed City Surveyor of Manchester in 1859.

Condition Report

One pin with silver band missing. Small split to foot approx 2". Old split to top of column. Minor age/handling wear.

Condition reports must be considered as a matter of opinion and not fact.