Lot 1241

Estimate: £500 - £800 + Fees

A 19th century gilt and vitreous enamel nef ship, probably Austrian, the canopy, sail and hull enamel decorated with classical scenes, with cast figures and rigging, bearing three apocryphal enameled flags, on wheels, makers mark LP to the bow (possibly Ludwig Pulitzer of Vienna), length 21cm, h.26.5cm

Stands well.

Crack to enamel on flag to front of ship.

Some minor overpainting to enamel on main sail, at top only.

Rear flag with some overpaint to enamel.

Rear axle has possibly been off.

Otherwise good with minor blemishes/losses to enamel only.

Metal is tarnished.

One ladder twisted and some rigging loose, but all appears complete.
